Destini Secures RM50m Contract From MinDef

KUALA LUMPUR: Destini Bhd has secured a RM50.18mil extension to its current contract to carry out maintenance, repair and overhaul services and the supply of safety and survival equipment to the air force.

It said on Tuesday its unit Destini Prima Sdn Bhd received a letter of award from the Defence Ministry for the extension of the existing contract.

Destini said the tenure of the contract was one year starting from Oct 3,2019 to Oct 2,2020.

The company also had to carry out the professional training and education for growing entrepreneurs and include at least 20 of these participants without any cost to the government.
