Destini Prima Wins Defence Ministry's Job

"This contract is expected to contribute positively to Destini's consolidated earnings for the next three years, should Destini Prima be awarded any of the contract parcels," Destini Bhd added.

KUALA LUMPUR: Destini Bhd's wholly-owned subsidiary, Destini Prima Sdn Bhd has won a contract from the Defence Ministry to supply non-proprietary aircraft parts for the Royal Malaysian Air Force (RMAF).

In a filing with Bursa Malaysia, Destini Bhd said it would allow Destini Prima and 29 other local companies to participate in parcels of bidding with a combined ceiling of RM121mil, should RMAF require any non-proprietary aircraft parts.

"This contract is expected to contribute positively to Destini's consolidated earnings for the next three years, should Destini Prima be awarded any of the contract parcels, " it added.

It will commence on July 1,2020 and end on June 30,2023.
